

Raipur : Chief Minister inaugurates Voluntary Service for COVID-19 Response Website

This website will help in encouraging participation of social organizations in prevention and control of corona virus, in public awareness and in exchange of information : Mr. Bhupesh Baghel

Voluntary organizations and State Planning Commission developed the website : Mr. Bhupesh Baghel

Raipur, 05

To encourage participation of social organizations, create public awareness and enable exchange of information, Chief Minister Mr. Baghel inaugurated the Voluntary Service for COVID-19 Response Website <https://coronahelp.cgstate.gov.in>. Through this website, one can access updated report of corona cases in Chhattisgarh, list of centers in state, list of voluntary social organizations, necessary instructions of Central and State Government, quarantine center manual, guidelines for operating and managing centers, manual for pregnant women and children, ways to motivate people in quarantine centers etc. Chief Minister said that this website is a commendable initiative in Chhattisgarh. This website will help in prevention of corona infection, in providing relief works, smooth operation and management of quarantine centers. This is an exemplary initiative for other states of the country as well. He said that with active support of all sections of society, public representatives, officials-employees, the corona crisis has been controlled to a greater extent in Chhattisgarh. In future as well, we would deal with this challenge successfully. On the occasion, Chief Minister was accompanied by Mr. Bhupesh Vaishnav of Bilaspur, Mr. Basant Yadav of Support Organization Kanker, CFO Chhattisgarh UNICEF Mr. Job Zachariah, Dean of Raipur Medical College Dr. Vishnu Dutt, and Principal of Ayurveda College Dr GS Baghel via video conferencing.

Through this website, people interested can register themselves for providing voluntary services and can also make donations of cash and kind. Chhattisgarh has more than 10 thousand quarantine centers, which are presently accommodating more than 3 lakh 50 thousand migrant labourers and other people, and arrival of more than 2 lakh more is expected. In this situation, this website will prove beneficial for the migrant labourers and community. This website has been developed under the guidance of the State Planning Commission.

On the occasion, Vice-Chairman of State Planning Commission Mr. Ajay Singh, Additional Chief Secretary of Chief Minister Mr. Subrat Sahu, Principal Secretary Mr. Manoj Pingua, Advisor of Chief Minister Mr. Pradeep Sharma, Mr. Vinod Verma, Mr. Rajesh Tiwari, Mr. Ruchir Garg, Principal Chief Conservator of Forest Mr. Chaturvedi, PCCF and Managing Director Minor Forest Produce Association Mr. Sanjay Shukla, Member of State Planning Commission Mr. K Subramanyam and Secretary Mr. Rajesh Rana were also present.

number/1597/P

TAGS:

 Print this article

