

BIRTH ANNIVERSARY OF DR. AMBEDKAR TO BE CELEBRATED AT SOCIAL WELFARE OFFICE

Panaji: April 11, 2020

The Government has decided to celebrate the 129th birth Anniversary of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar on April 14, 2020 strictly in the head office premises of the Directorate of Social Welfare at Panaji with skeletal staff of the Directorate by garlanding the Portrait of Dr. Ambedkar at the hands of the Director of Social Welfare.

The above decision is arrived in view of the Coronavirus pandemic and the imposing of the lockdown to contain the spread of epidemic.

It may be informed that the birth Anniversary of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar, the architect of the Constitution of India is celebrated every year on April 14 and in recognition of the same, State Level public function is celebrated at Ambedkar Garden, Panaji where the statue of Dr. Ambedkar is garlanded by dignitaries in the presence of community people and other public in general.

All organizations are advised not to organize the public function in view of the health emergency forced by Covid 19.
